

Dissertation Template

by James Lani

<http://www.statisticssolutions.com/dissertation-template/>

Click here for to get help with your Thesis or Dissertation.

Click here for FREE Thesis and Dissertation resources (templates, samples, calculators).

The Dissertation Template is a comprehensive, 24-page outline that you can use for your dissertation. Whether your university has a template or you've begun the dissertation without one, this guide will be helpful to you as it includes a detailed descriptions of chapters 1-5 and subsections that help you, the doctoral student, flesh-out each chapter. The template is written to comply with most university requirements.

The Dissertation Template includes:

- Table of contents with hyperlinks to particular chapters
- Page numbering (including roman numeral front matter)
- Reference examples
- Average word count per section
- Chapters 1-5 guidelines
- APA 6th Edition formatting
- Automatic Bookmarks (clickable to section)
- Definition of terms

To download the Dissertation Template, click the image below.

*We have recently come across versions of Microsoft Word that are incompatible with this document. If you attempt to open and receive the error message:

Word cannot start the converter mswrd632

There is nothing wrong with the file or your computer, you simply do not have a version that has attempted to open a file like this (we created the document using plain text file as well as Word). You may be prompted to accept up to three times but it is safe to accept the conversion. If you are uncomfortable doing this, we will be happy to email the document directly to you. Send an email to Kerri@StatisticsSolutions.com and she will reply with the Dissertation Template document shortly.

To learn more about this, visit the Microsoft support center website on this subject at:

<http://support.microsoft.com/kb/973904>

---